Icebreaker

Share a memorable experience of eating with others. Where was it? With whom? What made it memorable?

Follow-up: What are the benefits of sharing a meal with others?

In this passage, the apostle Paul emphasizes the ways we eat and fellowship with others, exposes where our heart is.

Explain how this is communicated in the text. And explain how you've experienced this reality.

On Sunday Pastor Chris said, "there are plenty of tables that call us to sit down to break communion with God."

What are some of those tables? Which of those tables do you struggle with? Explain.

In what ways are you being challenged to cultivate greater fellowship with Christ?
How can we cultivate greater fellowship with Christ together?
